Subject: Concert is a must-see!

Dear fellow teachers at MHS-E,

My French classes have just seen a mini-version of the musical revue put on by Claudia Hommel, who has come here from Chicago. She is fabulous!

Tomorrow night (Fri.) she is doing a full concert cabaret-style , "An Evening in Paris" at the Manhattan Arts Center. Tickets are a bargain at $15/adults, $10 /student.

Not only is she a talented singer/dancer, but also a very interesting person with a unique perspective on living in Paris (American parents) just after WWII. Her repertoire includes not only French songs, (and Spanish), but jazz, blues, the likes of Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Duke Ellington, etc. She is big-time--we are lucky to have her here!

Go soak in some culture, enjoy the ambience, and revel at the music.

Nancy Worthington
