

THE JAZZ FAURÉ PROJECT

A CABARET CONFECTION of FRENCH IMPRESSIONISM and AMERICAN JAZZ

—we're singing in a Renoir painting and dancing in Monet's garden—

COME JOIN THE PICNIC!

The Jazz Fauré Project is giving the hit-songs of Gabriel Fauré the velvet treatment—from swing to bossa, wistful ballad to snappy joie de vivre. These gorgeous mini-masterpieces by France's finest 19th century songwriter are arranged for 21st century jazz quartet and two singers. The result is a sure delight for jazz, classical and pop music audiences.

Performed by some of Chicago's finest musicians—arrangers Dennis Luxion or Bobby Schiff on piano, Jim Cox on bass, Tim Davis on drums, Jerry DiMuzio or Tim McNamara on flute, clarinet and saxophone, singers Sean Harris and Claudia Hommel. IN CONCERT and IN RECORDING – for details visit www.jazzfaure.com
